IF YOU WOULD LIKE YOUR YARD SALE ON THE MAP, YOU HAVE UNTIL JUNE 8TH TO CALL ROBERT @ 208-661-4444 IF THERE IS NO ANSWER, LEAVE YOUR NAME, PHONE NUMBER AND ADDRESS OF THE SALE AND ROBERT WILL CALL YOU BACK. THE COST TO BE INCLUDED ON THE MAP IS $10

CHANGES:

You may notice some changes with your utility billing statements this month and next. With the changes being made to the Billing Procedures, Delinquencies and Shut-Off dates, it has become necessary to make changes to the billing statements so that they are accurate. With changes, comes confusion; if you need help understanding the changes that are being made please contact City Hall, we will be more than happy to walk you through it. *If you are on Equal Pay, note that no changes have been made to the policy.

VACANT COUNCIL MEMBER POSITION FILLED

THE CITY OF PLUMMER IS HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE THE APPOINTMENT OF LETICIA KENAR AS A NEW COUNCIL MEMBER. LETICIA WAS SELECTED FROM 4 CANDIDATES AND WAS APPOINTED DURING LAST MONTHS REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING.

Public Works

- The City Crew will be installing water service lines—service will not be affected during installation.
- The crew will also be tackling pot holes throughout the city.
- Public Works now has a CETA worker (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), who will be helping the crew this summer.
- Public Works and City Hall would like to remind all the citizens that the city does have ordinances that require residents to control weeds, clean up excessive debris and junk around their homes. If you have questions as to “what” needs cleaned up, the city ordinances are available upon request. *Please be aware that these ordinances are enforceable and the city will be notifying residents of compliance issues. You can also call City Hall if you have any questions about ordinances and enforcement.
