Public Works News

Please make sure your vehicles are not hanging out into the City Streets, this will help our City Crew with snow plowing.

If you see any dangerous intersections or steep slippery hills please contact the on-call phone to report 208-755-2573.

Once again the City would like to thank everyone for their patience during the power outage.

Library News

If you are looking for a unique Christmas gift idea for family or friends who have historical roots in the Plummer area, the library still has copies of the book "With a Shotgun Behind the Door" by Carl Hoisington. The book sells for $16. The library also has a great selection of holiday books & movies to check out.

Winners of the Idaho Family Reading Week Drawing were Jennifer Bayless, Gary Bell, and Cathy Fenton. Congratulations!
